Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

Part I, Line 2:

The organization conducts due diligence on all grants prior to approval. This process includes determining that the recipient is a valid 501(c)(3), as determined from Guidestar and the recipient's Form 990, and ensuring the disbursing fund has sufficient money to cover the grant. Grants to non-501(c)(3) entities require expenditure substantiation to ensure that the funds were used only for charitable purposes. Grants from donor-advised funds require that the donor not receive any personal benefits in return, which is confirmed in the award letter to the grantee.
